		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
		INFORMATION REPORT	-
		INFORMATION REPORT
	COUNTRY	USSR	DATE DISTR. 8 Jan 53
	SUBJECT	Mobilization Plan at the Munitions Plant	NO. OF PAGES 1 50X1
		#359 in Pavlograd
(1	PLACE ACQUIRED		NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW)
	DATE	4.	SUPPLEMENT TO
	ACQUIRE		REPORT NO.
	DATE OF]
	THES DOCUMENT OF THE UNITED AND 794, OF TH LATION OF ITS PROMIBITED BY	CONTRINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE TATES, SITAME HERACING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 CONTENTS TO OR RECEIFT TO AN UNANAMENSIED SECTION CONTENTS TO ORDER TO THE PROPRIEST TO THE RECEIPT TO	UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1
		The munitions plant #359 at Pavlograd (48.33N - 35. People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprun by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term: v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plant secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was handled	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security
		People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term: v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plansecret documents and personnel was handled by the s	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsotype)
	2. [People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supportun by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term: v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plant secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was hand	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsotype as responsible for taking draft byses to the draft (venkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt statu 24 hours after mobilization
	2.	People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term: v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plansecret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret (voinskiye bilyety) of the draft exempt employed which stamped on the card the official notice of the procedure was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, could not continue production. In the Pavlograd plant production were draft exempt. The financial section	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsothye) as responsible for taking draftyees to the draft (yoenkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt statu 24 hours after mobilization also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he ent about 85% of the concerning mobilization had
	2.	People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term; v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plans secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret (voinskiye bilyety) of the draft exempt employed which stamped on the card the official notice of the This procedure was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, could not continue production. In the Pavlograd pl	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsotype) as responsible for taking draftyees to the draft (yeenkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt status 24 hours after mobilization also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he and about 85% of the concerning mobilization had a readiness at Gosbank to
	2.	People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term: v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plans secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret (voinskive bilyety) of the draft exempt employed which stamped on the card the official notice of the This procedure was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, could not continue production. In the Pavlograd plemployees were draft exempt. The financial section only the one provision that funds were to be kept it pay off in cash within 24 hours all employees who we	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsotype) as responsible for taking draft byes to the draft (veenkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt status 24 hours after mobilisation also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he ent about 85% of the concerning mobilization had a readiness at Gosbank to being called into military
	2. [People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term: v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plans secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret (voinskive bilyety) of the draft exempt employed which stamped on the card the official notice of the This procedure was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, could not continue production. In the Pavlograd plemployees were draft exempt. The financial section only the one provision that funds were to be kept it pay off in cash within 24 hours all employees who we	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsotype) as responsible for taking draftyees to the draft (voenkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt status 24 hours after mobilization also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he and about 85% of the concerning mobilization had a readiness at Gosbank to the being called into military 50X1
1	2. [3. [People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term; y person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plant secret documents and personnel was handled by the scards (voinskiye bilyety) of the draft exempt employed which stamped on the card the official notice of the This procedure was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, could not continue production. In the Pavlograd plamployees were draft exempt. The financial section only the one provision that funds were to be kept i pay off in cash within 24 hours all employees who we service. Plans of these warehouses were highly secret	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsothy). Its responsible for taking draft by the search of the draft (venkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt status 24 hours after mobilisation also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he and about 85% of the concerning mobilization had an readiness at Gosbank to be being called into military 50X1 documents retained in the clant management was instructed as evacuated; some was kept in
1	2. [3. [People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term; v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plant secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret (voinskive bilyety) of the draft exempt employed which stamped on the card the official notice of the This procedure was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, sould not continue production. In the Pavlograd plemployees were draft exempt. The financial section only the one provision that funds were to be kept it pay off in cash within 24 hours all employees who we service. Plans of these warehouses were highly secret files of the People's Commissariat for Munitions. When the Germans approached in 1941 the Pavlograd pto evacuate all equipment. Some of the equipment was an inspector (priyomschik) and the province of the equipment was an inspector (priyomschik) and the province of the equipment was an inspector (priyomschik) and the province of the equipment was an inspector (priyomschik) and the priyomschik) and the priyomschik and the priyomschi	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsothy). Its responsible for taking draft by the search of the draft (venkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt status 24 hours after mobilisation also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he and about 85% of the concerning mobilization had an readiness at Gosbank to be being called into military 50X1 documents retained in the clant management was instructed as evacuated; some was kept in
1 1	2. [3. [People's Commissariat for Munitions. Military supprum by draft-exempt civilians (the Russian term; v person at the plant was an inspector (priyomschik) for the military the munitions produced by the plant secret documents and personnel was handled by the secret was required to be completed within had been declared. The director of the plant was a to the draft board names of employees without whom, could not continue production. In the Pavlograd plant of the one provision that funds were to be kept i pay off in cash within 24 hours all employees who we service. Plans of these warehouses were highly secret files of the People's Commissariat for Munitions. When the Germans approached in 1941 the Pavlograd properation to supply the front, and the rest was bome operation to supply the front, and the rest was bome operation.	ply plants and factories were broni). The only military whose duty it was to accept at. All control over security special department (spetsothy). Its responsible for taking draft by the search of the draft (venkomat) as bearer's draft-exempt status 24 hours after mobilisation also responsible for submitting in his consideration, he and about 85% of the concerning mobilization had an readiness at Gosbank to be being called into military 50X1 documents retained in the clant management was instructed as evacuated; some was kept in